COUNT 1

Conspiracy to Solicit Bribes by a Public Official, Deprive Citizens of Honest Services by Wire Fraud, and Violate the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act

THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES THAT:

39. Paragraphs 1 through 38 of this Indictment are re-alleged as if fully set forth herein.

THE CONSPIRACY AND ITS OBJECTS

40. Beginning in or about January 2001 through in or about August 2005, within the Eastern District of Virginia and elsewhere, the defendant, WILLIAM J. JEFFERSON, did knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree, together with Vernon L. Jackson, Brett M. Pfeffer, and others known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit the following offenses against the United States:

a. to, directly and indirectly, corruptly demand, seek, receive, accept, and agree to receive and accept anything of value personally and for any other person and entity, in return for being influenced in the performance of any official act, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 201(b)(2)(A);

b. to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and deprive the citizens of the United States and the United States House of Representatives of their right to the honest services of Defendant JEFFERSON, performed free from deceit, fraud, concealment, bias, conflict of interest, self-enrichment, and self-dealing, and to use wire communications in interstate and foreign commerce to further the scheme to defraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 1346; and

c. to willfully use the mails and any means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce corruptly in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay, and authorization of the payment of any money, and offer, gift, promise to give, and authorization of the giving of anything of value to any foreign officials for purposes of: (i) influencing acts and decisions of such foreign officials in their official capacities; (ii) inducing such foreign officials to do and omit to do acts in violation of the lawful duty of such officials; (iii) securing any improper advantage; and (iv) inducing such foreign officials to use their influence with a foreign government and instrumentality thereof to affect and influence any act and decision of such government and instrumentality, in order to assist Defendant JEFFERSON and others in obtaining and retaining business for and with, and directing business to, any person, in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(a).

NATURE AND PURPOSE OF THE CONSPIRACY

The nature and purpose of the conspiracy included the following:

41. To provide for the unjust enrichment of Defendant JEFFERSON and his family members by corruptly seeking, soliciting, and directing that things of value be paid to him and his family members in return for Defendant JEFFERSON's performance of official acts.

42. To use the Office of Congressman WILLIAM J. JEFFERSON, including the congressional staff members employed therein, to perform official acts to advance the interests of the businesses and persons who had agreed to pay things of value to Defendant JEFFERSON and his family members.

43. To conceal the illegal nature of Defendant JEFFERSON's solicitations for, and receipt of, various things of value through the preparation of misleading written agreements, the use of nominee companies, and the omission of material facts concerning the financial benefits that were sought on behalf of, and received by, Defendant JEFFERSON and his family members, all to ensure the continued existence and success of the conspiracy.

44. To offer, promise, and make bribe payments to foreign officials of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, including Nigerian Official A, in order to advance the business interests of the Nigerian Joint Venture, its members and stockholders, and others who had agreed to pay Defendant JEFFERSON and his family things of value in return for his official acts.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

Among the manner and means by which Defendant JEFFERSON and his co-conspirators would and did carry out the conspiracy were the following:

45. As a Member of the United States House of Representatives and certain of its committees and caucuses, Defendant JEFFERSON discussed providing official assistance to constituent companies, including iGate and CW's companies, and businesspersons, including Vernon Jackson and CW, seeking to obtain and conduct business in west African nations, including Nigeria, Ghana, and Cameroon.

46. After initially discussing such business endeavors with these businesspersons, Defendant JEFFERSON sought things of value for himself and his family members in return for providing official assistance to promote those business endeavors. The things of value Defendant JEFFERSON sought in return for providing his official assistance included monthly fees or retainers, consulting fees, percentage shares of revenue and profit, flat fees per item sold, and stock ownership in the companies seeking his official assistance.

47. Defendant JEFFERSON sought to and did conceal his and his family members' expected or actual receipt of things of value by directing congressional staff members, family members, and others to form nominee companies that entered into business agreements to receive the things of value sought by Defendant JEFFERSON while not referencing him or disclosing his involvement in obtaining the agreements. The nominee companies included ANJ, Global, and Multi-Media.

48. While seeking things of value, Defendant JEFFERSON typically required that the agreements with the nominee companies be reduced to writing to make them appear to be lawful agreements for professional and legitimate services when, in fact, the companies and businesspersons were giving things of value to Defendant JEFFERSON and his designees in return for official acts to be performed by Defendant JEFFERSON.

49. In return for things of value, Defendant JEFFERSON agreed to perform and did perform a pattern of official acts to promote and advance the business interests of these companies and businesspersons in West Africa and elsewhere. These official acts included:

- a. conducting official travel to foreign countries and meeting with foreign government officials for the purpose of influencing those officials;
- b. using his congressional staff members to create trip itineraries, accompany Defendant JEFFERSON on travel, and otherwise provide official assistance;
- c. contacting both United States and foreign embassies to schedule meetings with foreign government officials, obtaining entry and exit visas for travelers, and otherwise assisting with the official travel;

d. sending official correspondence on congressional letterhead to foreign government officials; and

e. scheduling and participating in meetings with officials of United States agencies to secure potential financing for the business ventures sought by the companies and businesspersons.

50. Defendant JEFFERSON failed to disclose his and his family's financial interests in these business ventures by omitting this material information from travel and financial disclosure forms required to be filed by the Rules of the United States House of Representatives and, in some cases, by simply failing to make any of the required filings.

51. Defendant JEFFERSON failed to disclose to United States and foreign government officials his and his family's financial interests in the business ventures he was officially promoting in order to give the false impression that Defendant JEFFERSON was merely acting as an impartial public servant promoting United States business interests abroad.

52. Defendant JEFFERSON, Nigerian Businessperson B, and others agreed that bribes would be paid, as needed, to various Nigerian government officials if deemed necessary to the success of the Nigerian Joint Venture. Defendant JEFFERSON was responsible for negotiating, offering, and delivering the payment of bribes to Nigerian Official A to induce Nigerian Official A to use his position to assist in securing approvals necessary to the success of the Nigerian Joint Venture. Nigerian Businessperson B was responsible for the payment of bribes to lower ranking Nigerian government officials to ensure the success of the Nigerian Joint Venture.

It now stands at $262,500.00.”

COUNT 2
Conspiracy to Solicit Bribes by a Public Official and Deprive Citizens of Honest Services by Wire Fraud

THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES THAT:

140. Paragraphs 1 through 38 of this Indictment are re-alleged as if fully set forth herein.

THE CONSPIRACY AND ITS OBJECTS

141. Beginning in or about August 2000 through in or about March 2005, within the Eastern District of Virginia and elsewhere, the defendant, WILLIAM J. JEFFERSON, did knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree, together with others, known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit the following offenses against the United States:

a. to, directly and indirectly, corruptly demand, seek, receive, accept, and agree to receive and accept anything of value personally and for any other person and entity, in return for being influenced in the performance of any official act in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 201(b)(2)(A); and

b. to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and deprive the citizens of the United States and the United States House of Representatives of their right to the honest services of Defendant JEFFERSON, performed free from deceit, fraud, concealment, bias, conflict of interest, self-enrichment, and self-dealing, and to use wire communications in interstate and foreign commerce to further the scheme to defraud in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 1346.

NATURE AND PURPOSE OF THE CONSPIRACY

The nature and purpose of the conspiracy included the following:

142. To provide for the unjust enrichment of Defendant JEFFERSON and his family members by corruptly seeking, soliciting, and directing that things of value be paid to him and his family members in return for Defendant JEFFERSON's performance of official acts.

143. To use the Office of Congressman WILLIAM J. JEFFERSON, including the congressional staff members employed therein, to perform official acts to advance the interests of the businesses and persons who had agreed to pay things of value to Defendant JEFFERSON and his family members.

144. To conceal the illegal nature of Defendant JEFFERSON's solicitations for, and receipt of, various things of value through the preparation of misleading written agreements, the use of nominee companies, and the omission of material facts concerning the financial benefits that were sought on behalf of, and received by, Defendant JEFFERSON and his family members, all in order to ensure the continued existence and success of the conspiracy.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

Among the manner and means by which Defendant JEFFERSON and his co-conspirators would and did carry out the conspiracy were the following:

145. As a Member of the United States House of Representatives and certain of its committees and caucuses, Defendant JEFFERSON discussed providing official assistance to constituent companies, including Companies A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, and businesspersons, including Businesspersons A, BC, DEF, and G, seeking to obtain and conduct business in west African nations, including Nigeria, Equatorial Guinea, and Sao Tome and Principe.

146. After initially discussing such business endeavors with these businesspersons, Defendant JEFFERSON sought things of value for himself and his family members in return for providing official assistance to promote those business endeavors. The things of value Defendant JEFFERSON sought in return for providing his official assistance included monthly fees or retainers, consulting fees, percentage shares of revenue and profit, and commissions per item sold.

147. Defendant JEFFERSON sought to and did conceal his and his family members' expected or actual receipt of things of value by directing congressional staff members, family members, and others to form nominee companies that entered into business agreements to receive the things of value sought by Defendant JEFFERSON while not referencing him or disclosing his involvement in obtaining the agreements. The nominee companies included BEP, Global, PIPCO, and Providence Lake.

148. While seeking things of value, Defendant JEFFERSON typically required that the agreements with the nominee companies be reduced to writing to make them appear to be lawful agreements for professional and legitimate services when, in fact, the companies and businesspersons were giving things of value to Defendant JEFFERSON and his designees in return for the official acts by Defendant JEFFERSON.

149. In return for things of value, Defendant JEFFERSON agreed to perform and did perform a pattern of official acts to promote and advance the business interests of these companies and businesspersons in West Africa and elsewhere. These official acts included:

- a. conducting official travel to foreign countries and meeting with foreign government officials for the purpose of influencing those officials;

- b. using his congressional staff members to create trip itineraries, accompany Defendant JEFFERSON on travel, and otherwise provide official assistance;
- c. contacting both United States and foreign embassies to schedule meetings with foreign government officials, obtaining entry and exit visas for travelers, and otherwise assisting with the official travel;
- d. sending official correspondence on congressional letterhead to foreign government officials; and
- e. scheduling and participating in meetings with officials of United States agencies to secure potential financing for the business ventures sought by the companies and businesspersons.

150. Defendant JEFFERSON failed to disclose his and his family's financial interests in these business ventures by omitting this material information from travel and financial disclosure forms required to be filed by the Rules of the United States House of Representatives.

151. Defendant JEFFERSON failed to disclose to United States and foreign government officials his and his family's financial interests in the business ventures he was officially promoting in order to give the false impression that Defendant JEFFERSON was merely acting as an impartial public servant promoting United States business interests abroad.
